

THE COSTURA ESPAÑA ASSOCIATION ADVANCES ITS INTERNATIONAL EXPANSION STRATEGY IN THE LATIN AMERICAN MARKET BY HOSTING THE FIRST-EVER GLOBAL FASHION GALLERY RUNWAY IN CÓRDOBA ON AUGUST 14 AND 15 AT THE ICONIC CONCEJO DELIBERANTE BUILDING, BRINGING TOGETHER A TOTAL OF 10 DESIGNERS FOR ITS INAUGURAL EDITION.

The Costura España Association continues its international expansion and fashion projection strategy with the launch of GLOBAL FASHION GALLERY CORDOBA 2026, marking a key milestone in its mission to broaden its horizons across the Latin American market. The event will take place on August 14 and 15 in the city of Córdoba, Argentina.

For this special occasion, the year's most exclusive runway will be staged at the iconic Concejo Deliberante building—a landmark institutional and historical venue in the city that will transform into the epicenter of avant-garde design.

An International Production Featuring 10 Brands on the Runway

The event is organized by the international team at GFG PRODUCCIONES and led by LAMAK PRODUCCIONES under the executive direction of Brand Director Nora Gómez. The production company will spearhead these two dedicated days designed to elevate, promote, and amplify the creative vision of all participating brands.

The runway schedule spans two creativity-packed days where 10 fashion houses—both national and international—will debut their proposals and trends for the upcoming Spring/Summer 2027 season. A distinguished gathering of industry professionals, stylists, buyers, and specialized media outlets will convene in the city for an up-close look at every presentation.

An Avant-Garde Lineup of Ten Leading Brands

The official calendar brings together ten key brands and creators showcasing their collections for the S/S 2027 season. Highlights include the international participation of Chilean designer Luis Vergara at the helm of his label L'Ejandro Atelier, alongside collections from Santa Mardía, RIF, Waslala, Casa Mabres, Esencia, Ariccio, Blessed by Eunice, and Expert.

The grand finale of this edition of GFG Córdoba 2026 will come courtesy of acclaimed creator Ruben Perlotti, who will present an exclusive preview of «Anthology», the collection marking his heartfelt farewell to the runway.
